Official Report of the Mishap to the Cruiser Charleston.

ADVANCE OF AMERICAN ARMY

The Whereabouts of Aguinaldo and His Advisers Is Somewhat of an Enigma—Transfer of Insurgent Capital.

Manilla, Nov. 14.—The whereabouts of Aguinaldo and his army and cabinet is a perfect enigma. General Otis has learned that Aguinaldo recently issued a proclamation transferring the capital to Bongabong, giving as a reason for the step, the unsanitary condition of Tarlac.

It is supposed that the leaders of the insurrection who are not already at Bongabong are retreating to that place. Whether they are travelling with the army, how many soldiers they were to hold together, and whether the leaders of troops have got by General Lawton's line, are all unknown. It is hoped, however, that General Wheaton has effected a juncture with General Young, forming a cordon from San Fabian to San Isidro.

General Lawton has 6,000 men, General Wheaton 2,700—a small force to control so many miles, but it commands the main roads by which the insurgents must move to the northeast.

With the Americans advancing at the present rate they could drive the insurgents from Bongabong in a fortnight, and it is impossible for the insurgents to establish another camp in Luzon which can not be captured within a month. The rapid approach of the Americans was a complete surprise to the insurgents, as the latter expected them to move slowly, as they did from Manilla to Angeles.

The Filipinos thought it impossible for the Americans to make headway in the mud which prevailed everywhere, and the sudden invasion astounded the natives along the line of General Young's march, who had been told that the Americans were confined to the suburbs of Manilla.

A majority of the natives welcome the army enthusiastically, but some who have been deluded by stories of American cruelties hide in the swamps; women, who are unable to flee, fall upon their knees, upholding crucifixes and begging to be spared. When the news spreads that the Americans intend to remain and establish order, the population will flock to their homes, bringing with them their cattle and household goods.

The insurgents have drained the resources of the province. The army has impressed a large share of the crops, and the people are miserably poor. Everywhere are elaborate trenches built by noncombatants, working day and night, the Americans found big stores of rice at Tarlac, Tubig and elsewhere, and several thousand new Filipino uniforms were captured at Tubig. Thirty insurgents surrendered to General MacArthur, each receiving $30 for his gun. Major Marsh's battalion of the Thirty-third regiment, which includes many old rough riders from the southwest, attacked 400 Filipinos three miles from San Fabian, on the Dagupan road on Friday. The Filipinos had been firing at the outposts. Major Marsh found them entrenched across the river. Their trenches had been made after General Wheaton's arrival. Major Marsh charged them with a portion of his battalion, fording the stream and a part crossing by the bridge. When the Americans approached, the Filipinos, afraid to show their heads, poked their rifles above the trench and fired blindly. Major Marsh's force pursued them for a mile.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Admiral Watson cables from Manilla to the navy department the following official report of the wreck of the cruiser Charleston: "Charleston wrecked on uncharted coral reef, three miles northwest of Guinapac rocks, north coast of Luzon, at 5:30 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 5. Everybody safely landed on Kamiguin Island, armed with rifles and two colts. Natives friendly. McDonald made Lingayen gulf in sailing launch. When he left he had no opportunity for examining the condition of wrecking operations. A monsoon caused a heavy sea. He reported that the ship struck easily and then thumped violently. Fire room completely flooded; first water-tight doors closed promptly. Ship lies settled aft, water one foot from name; well out of water forward; apparently very steep bank; 10 days' provisions, one-half rations landed. Helena was dispatched from Lingayen by Oregon to Kamiguin."

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

It Will Require Several Days to Complete Official Count.

Louisville, Nov. 14.—The political situation in Kentucky, when considered in conjunction with the respective claims of the two parties, is as much in doubt as it has been at any time subsequent to the day of election. The count of the official vote is progressing throughout the state, and although it has been prosecuted with as much speed as possible, it will be several days before it is completed in all the counties, and even then it may not be sufficient to determine the result, for many notices of contest will be filed before the board of election commissioners.

At Bardstown suit will be filed by the Republicans, in which the court will ask that the election board be compelled to issue new certificates to W. S. Taylor, the ballot having been printed "W. P. Taylor." The Democrats are contending that 1,038 votes cast for "W. P. Taylor" are invalid.

At Republican headquarters it is claimed that Taylor has been elected by a plurality of 3,134. These figures are based they say upon official returns from every county in the state except five. The Democrats still claim Goehel's election, but are not giving out any figures.

The Naval Increase.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The project for further naval increase, which congress will be asked to authorize at the next session for immediate construction, involves 18 warships, three of them armored cruisers of the Brooklyn type, but double the size and formidableness of that excellent vessel; three improved Olympias, one-third larger and proportionately more powerful than the fine flagship that led the way into Manilla bay, and 12 gunboats of a type recommended by Admiral Dewey as essential for the effective patrol of the Philippine archipelago.

Dewey Regrets the Loss.

New York, Nov. 14.—A reporter went to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel and sent to Admiral Dewey a copy of the dispatch announcing the loss of the Charleston. The admiral said: "I am sorry, very sorry. The Charleston was a good ship; but if she had to be lost, I am glad, at least, that none of her gallant officers and crew shared her fate. I am always interested in the welfare of the men and ships in our navy, and doubly so in those that have been under my command. It is a treacherous coast where the Charleston met her doom."

The Mollieux Case Opens.

New York, Nov. 14.—The case against Roland B. Mollieux, charged with the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams on Dec. 28, 1898, was called for trial in the court of general sessions. Recorder Goff was on the bench. According to the prosecution, Mollieux, who was a member of the Knickerbocker Athletic club, sent poison through the mails to Harry Cornish, the club's instructor in athletics, because of a grudge against Cornish, growing out of the contest over the control of certain matters within the organization.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Nov. 14.—The Friends Bible Institute and Training school, Cleveland; the International Canning company, Toledo, capital stock $30,000; the Fitzsimmons Telephone Manufacturing company, Cincinnati, capital stock $5,000; the Tingle & Drake Company, Zanesville, capital stock $25,000; the Golden Rule society, Cincinnati; the Lake County Historical society, Painesville; the Edward Ford Plate-Glass company, Rossford, capital stock $2,000,000.

Italian Parliament Opened.

Rome, Nov. 14.—Parliament was opened in the senate on account of the unsanitary condition of the chamber. The Royal party was acclaimed by the people, as they proceeded through the troop-lined streets to the senate, and were heartily cheered on their entrance into the hall. The same scenes were witnessed when their majesties returned to the Quirinal.

Ex-Mayor Allen Better.

St. Louis, Nov. 14.—Hon. Cotton H. Allen, ex-mayor of Columbus, O., who has been seriously ill at the Southern hotel here for the past three weeks, is improving. He is now able to sit up a few hours each day. His physician is convinced that he will be up and around again in the course of a week.

Washington, Nov. 14.—According to the annual report of the paymaster general, it cost $13,983,174 to maintain in commission the ships in active service in the navy last year. For construction of ships and purchase of ready built ships $9,964,456 was expended; while $6,674,974 was absorbed in repairs to ships.

MAJOR JOHN A. LOGAN

Killed by Filipinos While Leading His Command in Battle.

WIFE AND CHILDREN IN OHIO.

Tragic Death of the Son of a Noted General of the Civil War Officially Reported by Commander Otis.

Washington, Nov. 14.—A cable dispatch received at the war department announces that Major John A. Logan, Thirty-third volunteer infantry, has been killed in a fight in Luzon. He was leading his battalion in action. He is a son of the late General John A. Logan of Illinois and Mrs. John A. Logan, now a resident of Washington. He leaves a widow and three children, who are at present residing at Youngstown, O. His wife was a Miss Andrews, whose uncle, Wallace Andrews, and his whole household met their deaths so tragically in their New York residence some time ago. His remains will be brought home on the transport Sikh. He will probably be buried at Youngstown, O.

The following dispatch received from General Otis confirms the report of the death of Major Logan:

"Wheaton reports, Nov. 12, there was an engagement near San Jacinto between the Thirty-third volunteers and 1,200 entrenched insurgents. Our loss, Major Logan, by gallantly leading battalion and six enlisted men killed. Captain Green and 11 men were wounded, mostly very slight.

"The enemy was routed, leaving 81 dead in the trenches. His loss is estimated to be 300. Lawton reports from San Jose that in the vicinity of San Nicholas north of Tayuig, Wessels captured 13 carts with the insurgent war department records, the printing press complete of the insurgent newspaper, and a large quantity of rice also captured. The cavalry is still actively engaged and the infantry is pressing on from San Jose and Araga. The roads are impracticable for any wheel transportation and the horses are foraged on rice and growing rice straw."

The news of her son's death was conveyed to Mrs. Logan by a personal note from Secretary Root, sent by Major Johnson. Mrs. Logan was prostrated by the shock, but later in the day recovered her composure, and, driving down town, communicated with young Mrs. Logan at Youngstown, O., over the long distance phone.

Mrs. John A. Logan drove to the White House. She was accompanied by another lady. In the parlor she met Mrs. McKenna, wife of the associate justice, who also has a son in the Philippines.

Word of Mrs. Logan's visit was brought to the president in the midst of the cabinet meeting. He at once saw the lady.

Sketch of His Life.

Major John A. Logan, Jr., was born in July, 1865, at Murphysborough, Ills. He received an appointment at West Point academy, and attended for two years, but resigned shortly before his class was graduated.

Since his marriage to Miss Edith Andrews, daughter of the late millionaire coal operator, C. H. Andrews, March 22, 1887, he resided at Youngstown, where he owned the Oriole stock farm and was engaged in limestone mining.

In May, 1898, Logan received from President McKinley the appointment of assistant adjutant general, with the rank of first lieutenant, on the staff of General John C. Bates. He went to Cuba and took part in the battle of El Caney. He was promoted to major for gallantry in battle, and at the conclusion of the Cuban war served with General Bates, who was governor of Santa Clara province. Aug. 19 last he was appointed major of the Thirty-third United States volunteers and sailed with his regiment early in October.

News at Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Logan, widow of Major Logan, is completely prostrated over the death of her husband, and her physician will not allow her to be seen. She had expected to spend the winter with her children in the south of France, and was preparing to leave when the cablegram announcing Major Logan's death was received.

Mrs. Logan has received the following telegram from President McKinley: "It is my painful duty to convey to you the sad intelligence of the death of your husband, while gallantly leading his battalion in the charge at San Jacinto. His splendid qualities as a soldier and high courage on the fighting line have given him place among the heroic men of the war, and it will be some consolation to you to know that he died for his country on the field of honor. You have in this trying hour for yourself and the children, the sincere sympathy of Mrs. McKinley and myself."

BOLD CRACKSMEN

Wreck a Bank Building But Fail to Get Money.

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—An unsuccessful attempt was made by cracksmen to rob the Garfield Savings bank at Euclid, an eastern suburb. The safe in the bank was completely wrecked, and the front of the building blown out by a powerful explosion. So far as can be learned the robbers secured no money, although a large sum was in the safe. There were two heavy explosions, which awakened people living near by. A citizen opened fire on the robbers, some four or five in number, and they fled, all escaping without injury so far as known.

Threatened Election Contest.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 14.—Dr. R. K. Prewitt, Populist candidate for governor in the recent election, threatens to make a contest of Judge Longine's election on the ground that the latter's nomination was illegal. In an open letter addressed to other Populist candidates and the executive committee of the People's party, Prewitt says that the Democrats violated the primary election law in reference to the nomination of their state ticket, the code requiring that mass meetings must be held in all counties on the same day, and that the Democrats did not observe this feature of the primary law.

Chinese Exclusion.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Whether Chinese exclusion should be applied to the Philippines is among the subjects engaging the attention of the Philippine commission. Considerable evidence bearing on the matter has been collected, and besides presenting this testimony with their full report, it is expected that a recommendation will be made which may have considerable influence in shaping the course of this government and the action of congress. A majority of the commission, it is said, favor Chinese exclusion.

Petition in Insolvency.

New York, Nov. 14.—William E. Midgely filed a petition in insolvency. Liabilities, $1,716,639, of which $274,762 is nominally secured. Mr. Midgely was president of the American Casualty Insurance and Security company, which collapsed in 1894 after its $1,700,000 capital and surplus had been expended. Midgely, with Henry R. Beecher, Vincent R. Schenk and John W. Taylor, was indicted in connection with the failure Jan. 14, 1897.

RELIEF EXPERIENCED

By the Arrival of Transports With Troops in South Africa.

RELEASE OF NATHAN MARKS

Demand by Boer Secretary of State With a Threat of Putting Six British Officers to Death if Refused.

London, Nov. 14.—That General White's relief is considered a matter of pressing importance is again evidenced by the satisfaction with which the officials heard of the arrival of the transport Armenian at Cape Town a couple of days before her time.

The nonarrival of her previous freight of field guns and ammunition threatened serious delay in General Methuen's arrangements for the relief of General White.

It is true that the First division of Lake's cavalry are en route, but in all probability the first arrivals of that arm at Cape Town will be sent to Durban, irrespective of which division they were originally assigned to.

There is no doubt but what the bombardment of Ladysmith has increased in intensity during the last few days, and though all messages from there speak of the confidence of the defenders, a load of anxiety will be removed from the country when unrestrained communication with the beleaguered town is re-established.

No allegations of Father Matthews have made a painful impression, and there is a disposition to discredit them as being merely the excited view of a noncombatant ignorant of real military requirements. Nevertheless, his story has added immensely to the anxiety of those who had relatives at the battle of Nicholson's Nek, as they now have the dread of dishonoring exposure.

Threat From Boers.

Cape Town, Nov. 14.—State Secretary Reitz has demanded that General White immediately release the supposed spy, Nathan Marks, who is confined at Ladysmith, coupling his demand with a threat to execute six British officers. General Buller replied, according to the special dispatch, that he was entitled to retain the man until he should render a satisfactory account of himself.

Majestic Chartered.

London, Nov. 14.—The admiralty has chartered the White Star line steamer Majestic to convey troops to South Africa immediately after she returns from her present trip to New York. The Majestic sailed from Liverpool Nov. 8 and Queenstown Nov. 9, and is due to arrive in New York.

Arrival of Transports.

London, Nov. 14.—It was officially announced that the troopship Britannic has arrived at Cape Town and that the troopships Lismore Castle and Yorkshire have arrived at Durban.

Bombardment Continues.

Pietermaritzburg, Nov. 14.—It is officially stated that the long range bombardment of Ladysmith with heavy guns continues daily, but without serious damage.

Throwing Shells.

Kimberley, Nov. 14.—The Boers are now throwing shells at the reservoir and waterworks. The weather is fine.

Reached an Agreement.

New York, Nov. 14.—It is now admitted by the directors of the American Bicycle company and the officials of the rubber goods company that the two organizations have at last come to a satisfactory agreement. None of the members of the bicycle commission will make tires hereafter. The agreement between the two corporations does not stipulate that the makers must purchase tires from the rubber company.

Hobart Convalescing.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 14.—Improvement in the condition of Vice President Hobart continues, and Mrs. Hobart and other members of the family feel confident that the life of the vice president will be preserved for a long time, even if his complete recovery is not considered a possibility by his physicians. He is able to partake of all of his meals at the usual time.

Republican Officials Too Busy Electioneering.

[Winchester Democrat.]

Saturday was the day for the payment of teachers, but Mrs. Scott had no money with which to pay them and none were paid. This seems to be the case in every county. The Republican officials who are elected and are paid to attend to school matters were too busy trying to keep Goebel from being elected Governor, and neglected to send the money. Thousands of teachers all over the State were put to much trouble and expense simply because of this neglect, and this is but a fair sample of the way the Republicans have attended to the public business during this administration.

THROUGH TO ST. LOUIS.

It is Said the C. and O. Will Soon be Operating Over the Big Four to That City.

[Leonard's Railway News.]

The statement is made on authority that at a meeting of the Directors of the Big Four in this city important steps will be taken looking to a closer relationship between that company and the Chesapeake and Ohio. From time to time during the past year it was reported that plans were under way with a view of making the relations between the two companies more intimate, and while such a contingency has been under advisement serious difficulties have been encountered, with the result that no material progress has been made in the stated direction. Arrangements, however, are now said to have been perfected whereby the Chesapeake and Ohio is to assume the role of a leading factor, and this is to take the form of the extension of that company's service to St. Louis by means of trackage rights over the Big Four from Cincinnati. This arrangement insures a thorough line for the Chesapeake and Ohio from the seaboard to St. Louis virtually over its own rails, and means the first step in the direction of the control of the Big Four by the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Regarding the reported retirement of President Ingalls from the Presidency of the Big Four, it is said that that gentleman placed his resignation with the financial managers of the property, but that it was withdrawn at their suggestion.

LISTEN TO THIS.

A Texas Paper Tells a Few Things About That Big State.

[From a Texas Exchange.]

Here is an item that will astonish our Eastern and Northern readers. A member of our board who is one of the prominent lumber men of Texas, writes us, "One of our mill men secured an order a few days ago from England for 500,000,000 feet of yellow pine lumber to be exported to Europe. It is estimated that it will take all the saw mills in Texas twelve months to cut it, fifty thousand acres of good timber land to furnish the timber and five hundred vessels to carry it across the water. This is the largest single order for lumber in the history of the world." To the above we may add the following facts: Texas is the largest State in the union, has the largest capitol building, is the third in the number of miles of railroad it contains, the seventh in population and produces one-third of all the cotton raised in the United States and one-fourth of all the cotton raised in the world!

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store every bottle guaranteed.

VANCEBURG'S MOB.

Such Scenes as Were Witnessed in That City Monday Intolerable.

Republicans Forget How They Served La Rue Thomas a Few Years Ago.

Vanceburg had all the appearances of war times Monday. It was the day to which the Election Commissioners had adjourned to conclude the counting of the Lewis County vote. On Saturday night the Republican Executive Committee had sent out notices into all parts of the county stating that the commissioners had thrown out Mowers and Burtonville precincts, and intended on Monday to throw out the entire county, and called upon all Republicans to come to Vanceburg prepared to prevent it.

As a result there appeared about 1,000 people there Monday all armed to the teeth, bent upon the destruction of lives and possibly of property. Such an unexampled outrage has seldom been witnessed. Those commissioners are officers of the law, sworn to do a solemn duty; clothed with certain power and authority and if their decisions are not satisfactory, appeals can be had to the proper tribunals, in every respect very much akin to the office of Circuit Judge. Now suppose Judge Harbeson was about to decide a case and one of the litigants should incite a mob to come to the court house here in Maysville for the purpose of intimidating and bulldozing him into rendering a decision conforming to their demands. What would the law-abiding citizens of Mason County think of it?

Such was the purpose of that mob in Vanceburg Monday. They thought by force, intimidation and bulldozing to compel the commissioners to swerve from their sworn duty. Such conduct is reprehensible in the extreme and intolerable.

The Republican Executive Committee of Lewis County either wilfully or ignorantly misled the people. They stated in their notice that the commissioners intended to throw out the entire county when they knew or should have known that the commissioners had no such intention; that they had on last Saturday expressly decided that the irregularities of the ballot were not sufficient grounds to refuse to count the vote. The point of contention was whether or not Burtonville precinct, which had never been certified to by the officers of election, should be counted.

A similar case occurred in Boyd County in the race between Pugh and LaRue Thomas. There the returning board were all Republicans. The election officers failed to certify to 150 votes received by Thomas in one of the precincts. The returning board did not count the 150 votes for Thomas, and staid up at work till midnight in order to get the returns off on the train with the 150 votes for Thomas uncertified to and not counted.

Now they insist on this Lewis County Board transcending their authority and counting votes which have never been certified to. This they cannot do, because they act only in a ministerial capacity. They cannot "throw out" anything, they simply certify to what has been certified to them.

Now if the Republicans can establish that certain votes were cast for their candidates in Burtonville precinct, the proper remedy for them is to enter a contest and introduce their witnesses and they can rest assured that "even handed" justice will be done them.

The commissioners did not do anything Monday at Vanceburg on account of the presence of the mob, but adjourned until Thursday, when they will conclude their labors, provided there is not another mob present.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. "THE SIGNAL OF LIBERTY" was presented at the opera house last night to a good sized audience, which was both appreciative and enthusiastic. The production was all and even more than was promised, and was staged with special scenery. The company is said to be one of the best and strongest that has ever visited our city. Those who have seen them say they deserve crowded houses. Mr. McGill, Miss Shipman and Mr. Garaghty in the leading roles characterized their parts in a most clever manner. Mr. Langdon as the villainous Spanish Captain gave a strong rendition of the part. Miss Langdon and Mr. Walsh were good in their respective roles. The Vizzaris, the Eldons and Harry Garaghty introduced pleasing specialties between the acts. To-night the great play, "Mystery of Woodlawn," will be presented for the first time in this city, and new specialties will be introduced. Ladies will be admitted free, if accompanied by a paid 30 cent ticket. Secure seats in advance at Nelson's. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Rev. E. L. Powell To Preach To-night.

The revival services at the Christian Church have been very well attended so far, considering the many meetings that have been in progress this week. The minister, Rev. H. T. Cree, delivered a very earnest discourse last night from the words of Jesus, "Whom Say Ye That I Am?"

Rev. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, arrives on the 1:33 train this afternoon and will preach this evening at 7 o'clock, and until further notice each evening at that hour. Mr. Powell is pastor of one of the largest churches in the South, having had charge of the church ever since he left Maysville. He enjoys a wide reputation as a pulpit orator, and is always greeted by large audiences wherever he speaks. One of the most successful revivals ever held in the Maysville church was conducted by him during his pastorate here some years ago.

All members of the church and his many other friends will no doubt make it a point to be present to-night to extend him a cordial welcome. The public cordially invited.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a cative condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. THE CHANDELIER FELL.

Christian Church at Germantown Narrowly Escaped Destruction Last Night.

The Christian Church at Germantown narrowly escaped destruction by fire last evening.

A protracted meeting was commenced Sunday at the church, Rev. J. P. South doing the preaching. Just after services closed last evening and as the people were leaving the house the large chandelier suddenly fell with a crash, scattering the burning oil over the pews and floor.

An exciting scene followed. The people went to work with a will to extinguish the flames, and were soon joined by the crowd that had been present at another church in the town where Rev. Porter of this city had delivered an address under the auspices of the K. of P. lodge. The crowd finally succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

The damage is placed at $300. No insurance.

OLD TIMES ON THE OHIO.

The Halcyon Days of Steamboating on the Western Waters—Famous Boats With Great Records.

The older residents of this city will remember the halcyon steamboating times forty-five or fifty years ago, when the rich and powerful Pittsburg and Cincinnati Line, represented by such palatial steamers as the Buckeye State, Keystone State, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Messenger, Cincinnati and Allegheny found a very popular and vigorous rival in the Union Line from Wheeling to Louisville, the fine boats of which were the David White, City of Wheeling, Tom Swan, Virginia, Baltimore, Falls City and Alvin Adams.

Captain William McClain, so long the popular commander of the Bostona in the Portsmouth and Cincinnati trade, was at one time the master of the David White.

Truly those were the prosperous days of steamboating on the Western rivers. In 1850 the tonnage on the Ohio river was one-fourth as great as our national marine. In that year the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Line carried more than three millions of passengers and their steamers were very fast. The distance between those two cities is 490 miles. In 1850 the Telegraph No. 2 made the run in one day and seventeen hours. In 1851 the Buckeye State made it one hour less and in the following year the Pittsburg went over the course in one day and fifteen hours. Of course it is not to be forgotten those boats carried the U. S. mails and attended to all the business at the principal towns and wayside landings.

There have been some remarkable steamers and fast time made on Western waters from the time when the Orleans made the run from New Orleans to Natchez—268 miles—in six days, six hours and forty minutes. That was in 1814. In 1870 the R. E. Lee made it in seventeen hours and eleven minutes and went through to Cairo—1,024 miles—in three days and one hour, and to St. Louis—1,218 miles—in four days, nine and one-half hours, the fastest time on record. In 1857 the Eclipse ran from New Orleans to Louisville—1,440 miles—in four days, nine hours and thirty minutes. From Louisville to Cincinnati—141 miles—the Telegraph No. 3 made it in nine hours and fifty-two minutes. This was in 1853. From Louisville to St. Louis the distance is 750 miles. In 1855 the Southerner ran it in forty-three hours, being an average of over seventeen and one half miles an hour. In 1876 the War Eagle ran from St. Louis to Alton—thirty miles—in one hour and thirty-seven minutes, nineteen miles an hour. In June, 1859, the City of Louisiana made the run from St. Louis to Keokuk—214 miles—in sixteen hours and twenty minutes, the best time on record. In 1868 the Hawkeye State, of the Northern Line Packet Co., made the run from St. Louis to St. Paul—800 miles—in two days and twenty hours,—never was beaten. In 1853 the steamer Polar Star went from St. Louis to St. Joseph on the Missouri river in sixty-four hours. In July, 1856, the James H. Lucas made the same run in sixty hours and fifty-seven minutes. The distance is 600 miles and when the difficulties of navigation on the turbulent Missouri are taken into consideration the performance of the Lucas deserves special mention.

Among the historic names that still linger in the memories of the very old steamboatmen of the Mississippi valley, in addition to those already mentioned, may be recalled the J. M. White, A. L. Shotwell, Sultana, Empress, Belle of the West, Reindeer, Rainbow, Robert J. Ward, Duke of Orleans, Atlantic, Natchez, Gen'l Quitman, Gen'l Brown, Ruth, Fashion, Moselle, Peytona, Princess, Ben Franklin, Belle Key, Alex. Scott, Great Republic, Southern Belle, Jacob Strader, Daniel Boone, Magnolia, Diana, Morning Light and very many others. They are all gone—like the glories of some bright, beautiful, golden summer day, whose sun is forever set—and with them much of the commerce, busy life and romance of our magnificent inland water ways.

The following lines, written by a young lady of Wheeling in 1854 in favor of the Union Line, have been given to us by our friend, Dr. A. N. Ellis. He says that he does not commend their peculiar meter and jingle, but hands them over just as they were written by the Virginia charmer:

OLD TIMES COME AGAIN.

The Pittsburg Line their time will do, If in no hurry to get through, But if you cannot spend a week The Union Line you had better seek.

There came a stranger to our boat, The fastest craft that was afloat, He seemed so anxious to get on I told him to take the Thomas Swan.

Here comes the Allegheny Mountain Height, The Swan leaves far behind in flight And like a living bird upon The water swiftly glides the Swan.

The Messenger, she fires hard, She dips her wood in barrels of lard, But faster yet she will have to kite To catch the Swan or David White,

The Keystone State although a tub, She lives upon the best of grub, We know not how she makes it pay She is so long upon the way.

The Alvin Adams is our craft For speed and comfort, and in draft She is an Adamant to shine, A Meteor in the Union Line.

The Philadelphia's time is good With rosi and lard while burning wood. But with sixty tons stowed in her keel The White can pass her on one wheel.

Here comes the Virginia, with Captain Wells, Not to be swamped by Pittsburg swells; Ever ready to set the pace: Always ready for a race.

The Pennsylvania's time will do, If in no hurry to get through, If time is precious, to be sure, Just step on board the Baltimore.

A much needed new brick pavement is being laid in front of the Christian Church.

Elder South, of Frankfort, began a series of meetings at the Christian Church on Monday evening.

Miss Hattie Elliott visited her brother, Julian, at Paris on Saturday, returning on Monday. He has been seriously sick for some time.

In our unpublished items of last week we mentioned that Fred Kurtz had purchased one hundred acres of the A. M. Pepper farm at $17.50 per acre.

T. G. McKinney was hastily summoned on Monday to the bedside of his brother at Mt. Olive, who was to undergo some critical surgical operation.

Mrs. Belle Burdette, of Lexington, who had followed the remains of her lamented husband to this place for burial last week, returned home on Sunday afternoon accompanied by her nephews, H. Burdette and Matt Walton, Jr. She has the sympathy of the entire community in her sad bereavement.

During the smallpox excitement some time since a citizen of Bridgeville wishing to go to Augusta and to avoid our town went across to Salem, Fern Leaf, Minerva and thence to Augusta. Returning he concluded to risk the route through Brooksville and on the pike about three miles west of town he came to a negro cabin ornamented with a yellow flag.

The eruptive contagious disease that was pronounced smallpox and created so much excitement in our community is again prevailing in the western part of the county. While it has made a few right sick for a day or two it seems not to hurt anyone or leave any marks behind it. Cold weather doesn't seem to have any effect. Board of Health and doctors being unable to control either the people or the disease have been compelled to let it "run and prevail." The same disease is prevailing in many sections of the South and everywhere there is a difference of opinion as to its nature and nomenclature. When doctors differ the patient usually dies, but no one has died with this disease as far as known.

JOHNSON JUNCTION.

Cbas. Schumake and brother, Joseph, left Saturday for Millersburg to visit Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burk.

Miss Minnie Tamme, of Paris, spent Sunday with the Misses Schumake.

In late years men have made fortunes out of the tailings of gold mines. The mills in which the ore formerly was crushed and the ernde processes then in use allowed a large percentage of the precious metal to escape, and the loss amounted in some cases to a fortune. The stomach is just like a stamp mill in this respect, that when it is not in perfect order it allows the escape and waste of much of the precious nutriment contained in the food. That loss when continuous means the loss of man's greatest fortune,—health. Science offers a remedy for this condition in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects the "weakness" of the stomach, prevents waste and loss of nourishment, and puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health which enables them to save and assimilate all the nutriment contained in the food which is eaten. In all cases of constipation the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will speedily and permanently cure disease.
